MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

S: October 14, 2005

SUBJECT: Announcement of Defense Comptrollership Program (DCP) Class of 2007 for Civilian Employees, Syracuse University (SU), and Follow-On Assignments

1. The Defense Comptrollership Program is a 14-month course of study delivered in two semesters and two summer sessions addressing Defense/Army Comptroller and Financial Management educational needs. The 60-hour graduate curriculum combines business and public administration theories, principles and concepts with Defense and Army resource management processes and practices. DCP is open to Army GS 11-13 employees registered in the Comptroller Civilian Career Program (CP 11) and to those in other career programs whose positions include significant resource management duties. GS-9s in full-performance positions may also be considered. Employees with graduate degrees may be nominated, but it must be shown how their DCP attendance would benefit the Army.
2. This memorandum provides requirements and procedures for the nomination, selection, attendance and post-training utilization of Army civilian students in the DCP Class of 2007. It supplements guidance in AR 690-950 (Career Management) and the OASA (M&RA) FY 05 Catalog of Civilian Training, Education & Professional Development Opportunities. Program details and application instructions are at Attachment 1, and selection criteria and forms for Army nomination packets are at Attachment 2. Most Syracuse University requirements for admission will be completed only by confirmed selectees. DCP starts in June 2006 and ends in August 2007. Nominations are due October 14, 2005.
3. Army civilian candidates will be competitively selected during 1st Qtr FY 2006 by a DA central board and placed in follow-on jobs ("operational assignments") before school starts. Candidates must take the Graduate Management Admission Test (GMAT) and receive formal test results prior to the application deadline. GMAT scores are valid for five years, and a 500 score is required for admittance.
4. Assignment to long-term training will normally be on a TDY basis, at up to 55 percent of the per diem rate for Syracuse, NY. TDY begins early in June 2006 and ends the day after DCP graduation in August 2007. For more information, please call DSN 222-7413, (703) 692-7413 or e-mail proponency@hqda.army.mil.

APPLICATION, SELECTION AND REASSIGNMENT PROCEDURES

1. Army Application – Submit a complete Army nomination by October 14, 2005 to:
OASA(FM&C), SAFM-PO
109 Army Pentagon
Washington, DC 20310-0109

Telephone Contact: (703) 692-7413 or DSN 222-7413

The Privacy Act statement, nomination selection criteria and the forms for the Army nomination packet are at Attachment 2. These forms must be submitted in one copy on unstapled, single-sided documents (reverse sides blank). Commanders and agency heads should rank candidates in priority order.

2. Documents for Syracuse University (SU) Martin J. Whitman School of Management– Have college transcripts and GMAT scores sent to Syracuse University Martin J. Whitman School of Management (school #2823) at the same time they are sent to us in the Army. Candidates should not apply simultaneously to the Syracuse University Martin J. Whitman School of Management Careerists selected for DCP will apply only after being formally notified of selection. For related information, contact the SU Executive Education Whitman School of Management, (315) 443-2898, or visit the Syracuse University Martin J. Whitman School of Management web site at www.sominfo.syr.edu.

A board of senior Army resource managers will evaluate Army nominations, interview candidates and propose a selection list for approval by the CP 11 Functional Chief Representative. Approved candidates will be offered training at Syracuse University Martin J. Whitman School of Management with same-grade reassignment to a new position anywhere in the Army, in the same or a different job series at either their current duty location or a different one. Candidates must accept both the long-term training (i.e., DCP) and the new job assignment prior to admittance into the program. Candidates, supervisors and commanders have important roles in identifying, defining and recommending operational assignments in the application process, including completion of the Operational Assignment Form (Attachment 2, Tab C) and letters of endorsement at all levels.

Army civilian DCP selectees will be reassigned by Notification of Personnel Action, SF 50, to their accepted operational assignments, with an effective report date in May 2006, before the Syracuse University Martin J. Whitman School of Management DCP orientation in June. Unless an operational assignment is overseas, the DCP selectee will report for in-processing at the civilian personnel advisory center (CPAC) servicing the new activity and sign a transportation agreement extending one year beyond DCP graduation. The CPAC will issue orders assigning the selectee to long-term training (LTT) and out-process the selectee for the Syracuse University Martin J. Whitman School of Management. During out-processing, the new DCP student will sign an agreement committing to continue in DoD employment upon graduation for three times the length of the training (i.e., 42 months) and will also sign an agreement covering contingencies in the event of failure to complete DCP.

PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT

The Privacy Act of 1974 (Public Law 93-579) requires each individual who is asked to volunteer, or is required to furnish personal information, or about whom personal information will be furnished, to be advised of the following:

Authority. Chapter 41, Title 5, United States Code.

Principal Purpose. To provide information to Department of the Army officials for use in assessing personal skills, knowledge and abilities needed to support proposed training assignments and in making selections for post-training assignments for civilian employees.

Routine Uses. Information to be furnished by or about civilian employees nominated by employing activity for official assignment to the Defense Comptrollership Program will be used by Department of the Army officials to process approval of proposed assignments.

Mandatory or Voluntary Disclosure and Effect on Employee when Information is Not Provided. Disclosure by or about a civilian employee of personal information requested for nomination to the Defense Comptrollership Program such as position title, series and grade, annual salary and employment history is mandatory. Nondisclosure of information may prevent Department of the Army officials from giving employees full consideration for resources requested from Department of the Army to support proposed assignments.

CRITERIA FOR NOMINATION AND SELECTION

DCP seeks to develop competencies in Economics, Accounting, Finance, Management Information Systems, Human Resources, Marketing, Operational Management, Ethics, Data Analysis, Business Strategy, Dispute Resolution, Public Entrepreneurship and Budgeting, and Administrative and Business Law. DCP classes address U.S. national defense policy, contracting and activity-based costing. Two seminars in Army/ Defense Comptrollership link academic experience with students' own practical exposure to field resource management in the dynamic Defense environment. Students graduate with Master of Business Administration and Master of Arts in Public Administration degrees.

To be considered, a civilian DCP candidate should (1) have, by the time classes start: (a) a "Secret" security clearance, (b) three years professional (GS-9 and above) Government civilian or military resource management experience, and (c) five years total Government service; (2) be in grade GS 11-13 when applying; and (3) be in a position covered by (a) the Comptroller Civilian Career Program (CP 11), (b) any other career program (e.g., CP 13, Supply Management; CPs 16 and 18, Engineering and Science; CP 26, Manpower and Force Management; CP 34, Information Technology) that includes significant resource management duties, and/or (c) Acquisition workforce position category K (Business, Cost Estimating and Financial Management).

University Requirements. A foundation in mathematical and accounting skills and concepts for the DCP's strong quantitative methods focus is expected and is tested upon students' arrival. Additional courses may be required. Candidates should also be conversant in the operation of personal computers and familiar with basic software application packages related to word processing, spreadsheets, graphics and Microsoft Excel. They should have as well a basic understanding of financial accounting principles.

Evaluation Factors. Evaluation criteria to be applied by the selection board include: career goals, demonstrated breadth of experience, leadership skills, potential for further advancement, and board interview results. These factors will influence ratings against the criteria: (1) the individual's demonstrated performance in a variety of resource management positions; (2) the timeliness of this training program and a reasonable expectation that the acquired knowledge and skills will be utilized upon completion of training; (3) the probability of completion of the program, based on the nominee's GMAT score (500 being the minimum score acceptable to the Syracuse University Martin J. Whitman School of Management), undergraduate grade point average and any actual experience in graduate course work; and (4) the extent of involvement in self-development activities such as off-duty job-related education/ training and participation in related professional organizations.

NOMINATION REQUIREMENTS

Complete packages for the DCP Class of 2007 will be assembled as shown below. Send one copy of all pages (single-sided) through the MACOM DCSRM to OASA (FM&C) by October 14, 2005.

A - Command Endorsements. Strong endorsements from Commands and senior Resource Management officials (command and/or HQDA) that cite recognized work accomplishments are highly desirable. Commanders should also rank-order multiple candidates.

B - Application for ACTEDS Training. <http://www.cpol.army.mil/library/train/catalog/pkt forcpd.html>

C - Nominee's Statement of Interest (accompanying). State short- and long-term career goals; express desire to attend the DCP, including how it would fit in pursuit of career goals; assess how both candidate and the Army would benefit from DCP; acknowledge AR 690-400 training agreement obligations and willingness to remain in the service of DoD for at least 42 months following DCP graduation; state willingness to abide by the Syracuse University Martin J. Whitman School of Management's rules and regulations; describe professional and personal expectations in an operational assignment; and assess ability to fill the required mobility agreement.

D - Operational Assignment Form (accompanying). Candidate will state preferences for work location, job series, and command level. Supervisor will identify and recommend an operational assignment in the same command or agency for the candidate. The form may also be used to describe a command assignment for another DCP candidate.

E - Functional Review Form. To access form type in the following url link, http://cpol.army.mil/cgi-bin/actedscatalog/pop_form7.cgi note the underline character after "pop."

F - Supplemental Information (includes Supervisory Rating and Endorsements) http://cpol.army.mil/cgi-bin/actedscatalog/pop_form8.cgi note the underline character after "pop."

G - CP 11 Resume Form, Career Employee Record (accompanying), dated and signed.

H - College Transcripts. Two official copies must be sent directly from each school to Syracuse University Martin J. Whitman School of Management (concurrently with one to the Army), each showing undergraduate or graduate work.

I - GMAT Score. Candidates must have taken the GMAT after June 2000. A 500 score is required for admittance to Syracuse University. GMAT scores must be available at the time the DCP selection board convenes during 1st Qtr FY 2006. The board reserves the right to further consider candidates below a score of 500, as appropriate. Submit scores of GMAT taken later than June 2000 with nomination packages, and request the Educational Testing Service (ETS) to send the same scores directly to Syracuse University Martin J. Whitman School of Management, school code 2823. Otherwise, arrange with ETS to take the GMAT no later than August 2005, with results to be sent both to the candidate and to school code 2823. GMAT scores are due to the University and to HQDA, mailing addresses above, by October 14, 2005. Nominees whose GMAT scores are not available when the DCP selection board convenes may not be further considered.
